Use the instructions below to find your way around our new site.

On the Homepage:

- Video demonstrations & lectures: On the home page if you click on the arrow to the left of the screen, it will take you to our U Tube site which houses dozens of demonstrations & lectures by our artists...
- In the middle of our home page there is a slide show of M Gallery's offered works
- To the left is M's Notes, a blog about art, cooking & passion.

At the top in the tab section

- .Artist selection includes Artists' works, bios & blogs: This allows you to thoroughly research our artists' works, both currently available & previously sold. It gives prices, sizes and allows for easy inquiries about works to our gallery staff as well as the ability to print and share with your friends or paste it up in the location you think you might want to hang it and dream away...don't dream too long though, or it will likely be gone. Many of our painters sell out as soon as we get the pieces in the gallery. If you want us to give you previews of up coming works by a certain artist, contact Crystal at 941.993.3907 or cwagner@mgalleryoffineart.com and we will add you the preview list. If you have purchased a work by an artist before, you are automatically on this list...Many of our artists write fantastic blogs. If you click on the Select an Artists tab, navigate to a selected artist's name, you can view their current offering, sold works, and to the left of their screen their full biography & blog.
- Gallery: This section has our hours & brief overview of the Gallery
- Featured Artist: This section gives information about the current show on display at the gallery. We always have exciting offerings from our nationally acclaimed artists including live demonstrations, collectors' intimate evenings at the gallery, art walks, one person shows, group themed shows, etc.
- Search: This allows you to narrow your options by artist, size, price range etc. An incredibly valuable tool if you are trying to find a work to fit a specific space in your home or if you are an avid collector following a specific artist.
- Events: This calendar function allows for easy access to the whirl of activity available year round at M so you can plan your visits to the gallery accordingly.
- Press Releases: Track us in the Press! M & our artists make news often: It is fun to keep abreast of your collection of paintings and watch your favorite artists make headlines in the art press.
- Contact: This section allows for inquiries regarding specific works & artists as well as a section for artists' submissions.

At the bottom of the page:

- Easy email signups so you can get our emails (we never, never sell or abuse our lists) from Emma (our email service)
- Easy ways to share our pages with a friend through the Email this page function.
- And of course, easy links to follow us on Facebook, Blogspot or Twitter.
